§ 3.3: Fallacies of Weak Induction, p. 128.

A  Appeal to Unqualified Authority (p. 128). #9

B  Argumentum ad Ignorantiam
   Appeal to Ignorance. (p. 130).

C  Hasty Generalization (Converse Accident) (p. 131).

D  False Cause. (p. 133)
   a  post hoc ergo propter hoc (p. 133)
      "after this, therefore on account of this."
      (Superstition)
   b  non causa pro causa (p. 134)
      "not the cause for the cause."
      Effect  (Confusing Cause with Effect)

E  Oversimplified Cause.

F  Slippery Slope. (To refute an arg. w/ a Slippery Slope counter arg. — is to say if we go along w/ X's arg., then basically the world as we know it will come to an end.

G  Weak Analogy.
   Comparison